Reader: Seán O'Halloran
Eucharist: Jo McGrath

Eucharistic Adoration takes place in Tuamgraney Church on Wednesdays from just after 10am. You are welcome to visit the Blessed Sacrament during these hours.
Adoration Strict HSE & government guidelines on hygiene and numbers of people in church must be observed at all times.

Thank you

Sincere thanks to the anonymous donor who generously contributed last week towards the cost of the recent repair of the boundary wall of St.
 Joseph's Church, Tuamgraney.

Please note – when reading at Mass please check with the celebrant beforehand.

PARISH NOTES

Please pray for our candidates for Confirmation and Holy Communion who are continuing their preparations for the celebration of these Sacraments.

Thank you

Míle buíochas to Margaret Furlong, Margaret Quinn & Bernie Brogan who have retired from their roles as sacristan in Tuamgraney church. Their faithful service to the church community will be very much missed and their help to all the priests of the parish as well as visiting priests was very gratefully received. Please keep them in your prayers and we take this opportunity to wish every blessing on each of them.

Church capacity is still restricted to 50 for all events. You can help us to stay within the limits by attending Mass on a day other than Sunday when suitable. This will fulfil your Sunday obligation.
 Please remember that social spacing in church is still necessary – maintain a distance in seating and you are required to wear a mask. Thank you for your co-operation and understanding.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Tom Cassidy and family on the recent death of his sister, Anne O'Malley, Castlebar, Co. Mayo. We also extend our sympathy to Bobby Malone on the death of his nephew, Damien Malone. May they rest in peace.

If anyone would like to donate flowers from their garden for use on the church altar it would be very much appreciated.

Saints of the week

Tuesday July 6th is the feast day of St. Maria Goretti was only 12 years old when she became a martyr and St. Moninne of Killeavy who was one of Ireland's early women saints; she died in the early 6th century.

Thursday 8th is the feast of St. Kilian who left Ireland and travelled to Bavaria, Germany and where, to this day, there is great devotion to him.

*I weave into my life this day
The presence of God upon my way.
I weave into my life this hour
The mighty God and all God's power.
I weave into my sore distress
God's peace and calm and no less.
I weave into my step so lame
Heaving and helping of God's name.
I weave into the darkest night
Strands of God shining bright,
I weave into each deed done
Joy and hope of the Risen Son.
(David Adam, Tides and Seasons)*

Reflection

Disturb us, O Lord
*Disturb us, O Lord,
when we are too well pleased with ourselves;
when our dreams have come true because we dreamed too little;
when we have arrived safely
because we sailed too close to the shore.
Stir us, O Lord, to dare more boldly,
to venture more seas,
where storms shall show your mastery,
where losing sight of land we shall find the stars.
In the name of him who pushed back the horizons of our hopes
and invited the brave to follow him.
Amen.*
