PARISH NOTES

We pray for all our students who are currently sitting state exams. May the Holy Spirit inspire and guide them. We remember them at all masses for the duration of the exams. There are sheets of paper at the back of both churches where you can write the names of students whom you would like to be prayed for at this time. Exam Prayer cards for students are also available in both churches.

Congratulations to Denise Walsh and Seán Clancy who were married in the Church of the Assumption Bodyke this weekend. We wish them God's blessing as they begin their married lives together.

Welcome back!

We are delighted to welcome Archbishop Eugene Nugent, Apostolic Nuncio in Kuwait, back to the parish after an absence of three years. He will be spending some of his holidays in Tuamgraney and will celebrate 10am weekday Masses in Tuamgraney Church on a day to day basis. We wish him a very pleasant visit.

- Tuesday 14th: St. Davnet.

A gentle reminder to those visiting cemeteries in the parish - when disposing of old wreaths, plants, flowers etc. from your family graves, please do not leave them anywhere in the graveyard. Take them with you when you leave. Thank you for your co-operation

Reflection

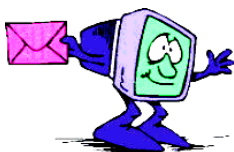

God is watching over us

*Nowadays, thanks to the security camera, we are often being watched,
watched by a cold, dispassionate eye,
intent only on catching us in wrong-doing.
The feeling that someone is watching us is not a pleasant feeling.
But the feeling that someone is watching over us is a lovely feeling.*

God is not watching us.

God is watching over us.

*The conviction that God is watching over us gives us comfort in times of sadness, strength in times of weakness,
and hope in times of despair.*
