The Bodyke Evictions took place in June 1887. On the Anniversary of the Evictions this June we remember in a special way all those involved in one of the most dramatic events of the Land War.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Patsy O'Donnell and family on the death of his brother, John, whose funeral took place during the week. We also extend our sympathy to Harry and the O'Meara family, Drewsboro, on the recent death of their father Harry Snr. May they rest in peace.

Reflection

Remembering

Jesus said to his apostles:

'Do this in memory of me.'

We all love to be remembered.

This was true even for Jesus.

But if we want to be remembered,

we have a duty also to remember.

Memory is a powerful thing.

Wrongly used it brings death;

rightly used it brings life,

and is a form of immortality.

It keeps the past alive.

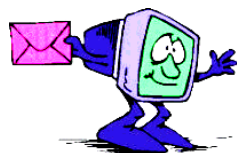

Those we remember never die;

they continue to walk and talk with us.

Lord, when we celebrate the Eucharist

we are remembering you.

May that remembering bring us life here and hereafter.
